

MERC Airport Transfers
(part of Express Group)
Maidstone West Station
Station Approach
Maidstone
Kent ME16 8RJ

On May 25th 2018, the new European Data Protection Regulation (GDPR) that replaces the current regulations comes into force. Please be assured that any personal data you have provided at any time and voluntarily to Express Cabs & Couriers Ltd in the context of the relationship that you maintain with our company, will be processed and conserved with the security measures that this new GDPR legislation requires.

Controller

The Controller for the processing of personal data is the company Express Cabs & Couriers LTD and its Registered office is located at Express Cabs Ltd, Station Approach, Maidstone, Kent, ME16 8RJ

Purposes

Personal data will be processed exclusively for the following purposes:

- Account registration and maintenance process
- Management of relationship
- Effective management of bookings

The personal data will be kept while the relationship with you is maintained, and from then during the time in which some type of responsibility derived from the execution of the relationship may be demanded.

Legitimation

The legal basis that legitimates to collect and process personal data is the execution of the business relationship that you maintain with Express Cabs & Couriers LTD

Addresses and Phone Numbers

All will be stored under the control of Express Cabs & Couriers LTD and will not transferred to other companies or exported outside the Europe.

Data will be stored in computer servers located in Europe.

Rights

You may exercise your rights of access, rectification, deletion, opposition, limitation and portability of the data to the controller for this purpose by directing a communication by email to the personal data controller Gary Jobling via email g.jobling@expresscabs.co.uk, indicating in both cases your name, surname and a copy of your identity document.

Should you feel your rights have been violated or have not been attended to with due diligence, you may file the corresponding complaint with the Data Protection Authority.

In every case, we will do our utmost to ensure your personal data is protected and your concerns are addressed.